FACT SHEET

The Healing Nation is a national initiative, spearheaded by Methodist Welfare Services (MWS), and marks the Methodist community's contribution to Singapore in commemoration of SG60. It is inspired by the 140th anniversary of The Methodist Church in Singapore (MCS).

A National Mission

The Healing Nation is a Methodist-led national mission to mobilise the community to give back to Singapore.

Building an Ecosystem

Through The Healing Nation, MWS aims to build an ecosystem by developing volunteer engagement capabilities that support sustained community participation.

Systemic Shift through Innovation

The Healing Nation kickstarts MWS' journey to drive systemic change in community care through innovation. Innovative solutions are imperative, whether through technology or other means, to ensure long-term sustainability of the sector.

TheHealingNation.sg Digital Platform

Facilitating The Healing Nation initiative is the digital platform TheHealingNation.sg – an Artificial Intelligence (AI)-empowered platform designed to match volunteers with volunteer opportunities. The platform is a prime example of innovation in the community care sector. Visit thehealingnation.sg today.

Who It is For

Open to all Singapore residents. Whether individuals, businesses or community groups - all are welcome to step forward and volunteer to serve the needs of the community.

Two Goals

MWS is calling on the Methodist community and all Singaporeans to mobilise 1.4 million hours of volunteer service.

MWS is committed to raise $1.4 million to fund critical social and healthcare services.

How Long

The Healing Nation will run until February 2027. But we hope volunteering will become a way of life.
